STAT

I received a note from [redacted] this morning giving me a brief outline of your background and outstanding ability.

ST

If it is in any way possible, I would greatly appreciate an opportunity to talk with you here in Washington on a subject which is of major importance in this Agency. I will try desperately to coordinate my schedule with yours if it is convenient for you to be here for a day and if that day can possibly be before July 13. I will also do everything I can to coordinate the time of my colleague, Mr. Allen Dulles, whom I am most anxious to have you meet.

Obviously any expenses incurred will be taken care of. I hope it will be possible for us to meet in the relatively near future.

Very truly yours,

/s/
